BURGESS AND THE ENVIRONMENT

Burgess Furniture is fully accredited with ISO14001 and takes its environmental responsibilities very seriously.

We continually strive to minimise our impact on the environment through incorporating new technology in design, production, waste management and energy use.

Almost all the materials we use are recyclable, including aluminium, which we use extensively throughout our products. Aluminium is 100% recyclable, with 70% of the aluminium extracted since 1886 still remaining in use today.

Other raw materials used in our furniture such as wood are sourced from PEFC registered suppliers (Programme for the Endorsement of Forest Certification Schemes).

The glues we use are water-based and our state-of-the-art powder coating system is designed to be as environmentally friendly as possible. This powder coating system is virtually pollen-free and does not use any hazardous solvents, ensuring that no residue needs to be disposed of.

We also keep transport distances of raw materials to a minimum and try to ensure that the raw material is produced using natural environmentally friendly methods. From the materials that we use, to our paint finishing technique, we are committed to the best environmental practices.

WORKING WITH YOU

At Burgess Furniture we define spaces. It's a matter of pride that we can carry out and complete all of our projects in-house from our London headquarters.

As a manufacturer, we regularly work with our clients to customise or develop products. Once we have the design you like we can then prepare a room layout, helping you visualize exactly how it will look.

Quality and craftsmanship go hand in hand and every design that we make is independently tested to contract standards by FIRA (Furniture Industry Research Association) to ensure it meets industry standards.

Our quality control department ensures that every product reaches the highest standard before receiving the GB hallmark stamp - the guarantee that it is a genuine, high quality Burgess product. Once they have passed the test they then can be shipped direct to you, wherever you are in the world!

MADE IN BRITAIN

All of our projects start and finish in our UK Burgess factory. We are proud of our hard-working team and their passion to produce the best quality and detail. Many people in the team are long serving, with over 40 years of experience and they are now passing their skills to the next generation.

We have just launched a brand new showroom at our London headquarters (close to Heathrow Airport) where you can see a permanent display of our entire product range and examples of commissioned bespoke furniture. We also have offices and showrooms in Dubai and Frankfurt.

We're always happy to welcome prospective clients and specifiers to our site for a guided tour of our showroom and manufacturing facility. Please let us know when you would like to visit and we will arrange to show you what makes Burgess the leading hospitality furniture brand.
